

Department	Item Approved	Summary
Volunteer Workforce	Royal Express 2	Purchase of a second Royal Express People Mover to help people move about the ground floor of RUH.
6000	Blanket Warming Cupboard	Warm blankets will enhance the patient experience and comfort.
Non-Invasive Cardiology	Anti-Fatigue Mats for the Exercise Tolerance Testing Room	New mats to help the technologists and physicians with leg fatigue and back pain from standing in a fixed spot for prolonged periods.

Department	Item Approved	Summary
Telehealth	Digital Scale with Height Rod	Remote clinicians request vitals prior to remote Telehealth visit this will save time for staff and patients by having a scale in the room.
Pediatric Feeding and Swallowing Clinic RUH	Alternative seating options for infants and toddlers	Stability and seating is important in how an infant eats.
Emergency and Volunteer Services	Fund cost of publishing children's book "Murphy Mondays"	RUH Emergency Department uses the support of St John Ambulance Therapy dogs that are highly valued by staff and patients. This book will inform and generate positive feelings among people about the RUH ED and Therapy Dog Program.

Department	Item Approved	Summary
Physical Therapy	Neurogymtech "Sit to Stand Trainer"	This tool assists patients by promoting early mobility in a safe and efficient manner. It strengthens weight bearing muscles and protects the therapist and patient from injury
Pharmacy	Dotcom High back Chair	These supportive chairs will keep the staff more comfortable during shifts when they spend a lot of the time sitting.
Neurosciences Unit 6300	Blanket Warming Cabinet	To provide warm blankets for patient comfort during their stay.
Respiratory Therapy	Facilitate simulation in the CLRC at the U of S	This is a learning opportunity to improve morale in staff that involves a simulation opportunity at the Continuing Learning Resource Center at the U of S. This will help develop skills, relationship building, teamwork and improve mentorship.